I am filling in as a long-term sub in preschool ...

By Katherine Romero

I am filling in as a long-term sub in preschool and felt that I didn't have much experience working in early childhood prior to this. This book was a quick read and gave me some tips on what to expect working with 4 year-olds and how to have an exceptional relationship with parents using various types of communication. I used this book to help me set up the classrooms as well as to establish routines.

Very helpful resource

By Kathy S.

This book is an easy read full of helpful information for any teacher new to the early childhood realm. I happen to follow the author's blog and have found a plethora of useful information there as well. "A Fabulous First Year..." is worth ordering and will help prepare you for a successful school year -- offering suggestions in areas you may not have thought about that will pop up during the year!
