The 1904 war that broke out in present day Namibia after the Herero tribe rose against an oppressive colonial regime—and the German army's brutal suppression of that uprising—are the focus of this collection of essays. Exploring the annihilation of both the Herero and Nama people, this selection from prominent researchers of German imperialism considers many aspects of the war and shows how racism, concentration camps, and genocide in the German colony foreshadow Hitler's Third Reich war crimes.

EDUCATIVE,EXITING,SAD AND SHOCKING

By mtb

I found this book to very educative.It both exiting , sad and shocking as it presents a glimpse of life in an Africa of the past , how the seeds of colonialism were sown,and shockingly the "intentionally well hidden and forgotten" historical injustices, now revealed in the 21 century is a stark reminder of the savage, barbaric, primitive acts of mass murder,lynching, rape, greed,brutality,selfishness,greed , plunder of reasources, slavery, servant hood, mass murder,lynchings,dention , corruption, bribery to buy "African loyalists" , conspiracies, perpetrated by the "civillised imperial powers of Europe" against the so called "uncivillised savages" in what is today's Namibia offering an astoundingly vivid insight of the euphenism term colonialism defining it into its truthful pragmatic meaning ,as colonialism was instituted in the whole of Africa for the take of its rich reasouces such as land ,rubber,minerals, labour under the pretex of " helping,and civilizing the savages" .
