Kingdom Citizenship

By Deana

This book is definitely a eye opening experience to read. I love the various illustrations the author gives about kingdoms . One thing I thought very interesting was about the "fall." He asks us what did we really lose in the "fall." I never really thought about that as bring significant to the kingdom. What did Adam and Eve fall from? They did the one thing they were told not to do. They fell from dominion and therefore Adam was no longer getting direction from God. I wonder how many of us have stopped listening to God? Who are we getting our direction from?

It is interesting to read in the book that the author said "it is a tragedy that we have produced a religion called Christianity . Jesus did not invent such a thing." What Jesus did do though was to come to earth "to establish an outpost of the Kingdom of Heaven." I understand more clearly when God said, " let them have dominion." He assigned us to manage what He had created . As we look around we can see that we are very much lacking in the area of taking care of what He created.

The book is very thought provoking and takes you into a deeper place in His word. The illustrations the author gives us helps to visualize what the Kingdom is and how we can take back what has been assigned to us. He is very direct and doesn't sugar coat anything. I like to read a book that gives me things to think about and take me deeper into the Word. When he said, "Some need to sell their loyalty to the pastor they love so much but who isn't preaching about the Kingdom", I stopped and re read that sentence. What he is saying is we need to be careful who we are listening to and making sure we are being taught what the bible says.

There is a great story in the book about an elderly couple who won a cruise. They were not wealthy and didn't understand what they had won. They packed their small belongings and headed to their cabin. It was a beautiful and luxurious room. They sat there day after day, eating crackers and juice but never leaving the room. On the ninth day, the captain became concerned . He had not seen them leave their room, they never came to dine or go to the shows. When he went to the room, he asked them why they had not partaken in any if the things the ship offered . They said they couldn't afford it. What the captain explained must have astounded them. The tickets they had were to enjoy everything the ship had to offer free of charge. The story was very vivid in what it meant. We lack knowledge, so we don't get the full benefits of the Kingdom.

Thank you for a book that will be a benefit to me as well as others in explaining the meaning of Kingdom Citizenship. The book is well written and has very good examples by using stories from the bible and scriptures to clearly relay his message. I encourage readers to take their time reading this powerful book and looking at the Kingdom as part of our inheritance that we need to take care of.

This is Dr. Munroe's crowning work!

By michael-flowers

This is a crowning work of explaining the Kingdom of God! I've read several of Dr. Munroe's books and I sincerely believe that he has nailed it, for lack of a better way of explaining it. Dr. Munroe brings clarity to an otherwise very confusing 66 books of the bible. The Kingdom message is very obvious for a serious bible reader. It was sad to hear of the jet crash that caused him to transition from the earth. But it was this same event that led me to listening to some of his sermons and reading some of his books. Now, I have read several of his books and this book is, in my opinion, is his crowning work. God Bless his son and daughter as they continue to carry on his legacy, I enjoy listening to them speak about receiving the baton and carrying on their father's work. This book will totally change your perspective on religion and help you to understand that it was never God's plan to form or found a religion. His ultimate plan was that we would all be citizens of his Kingdom and colonize the earth with the Kingdom of Heaven's culture!

Eye opening

By Penny S Marks

While reading this book I became sad knowing that this would be his last book. I am grateful for the opportunity to read and review this great book. I know that I will be rectifying this by finding his other works.

This book was very intriguing. You know the feeling when you think you already know the story and find out you were wrong? Yep, that's how I felt after reading this book. Dr Munroe explains that "we have produced a religion called Christianity". He goes on to explain that God sent his son Jesus to earth to help us "establish an outpost of the Kingdom of Heaven". God has assigned us to manage earth for him because he created it. He explains that we have not done a very good job of managing. Our world is falling apart around us, war, poverty, abuse, killings when will it stop??? We need to wake up and open our eyes to what God has given us and prepare for citizenship into the Kingdom of Heaven. We can't just be "Sunday believers" like Dr Monroe states in a chapter. We need to help others.

There are two worlds that contend with each other and they are kingdoms. One is the kingdom of darkness and the other is the Kingdom of Light. Satan is the darkness and God is the Light. There are some out there that we need to be careful listening too because they are wolves in sheeps clothing. Listen to God and the scriptures he has given us and our path to citizenship will be full of love and peace.

I loved this book and how easy it was to follow. Each chapter is filled with examples, stories, and scriptures from the bible. This book has a powerful message and is well written.
